Our first stop will be at the Magic Chef Mansion. This historic St. Louis landmark originally constructed in 1908 for Charles Stockstrum, the founder of the “Quick Meal Stove Company.” He later names his company Magic Chef. It was lived in by the family until his last daughter passed away in her 90’s. It was then purchased in 1990 by the current owner who has restored it to its turn-of-the century splendor, including original light fixtures and period furnishings.

Next, we will have lunch at Favazza’s. Our meal will be House Salad, Sicilian Chicken with side of Pasta in White Sauce, Beverage and Cannoli for dessert.

After lunch we will visit the Kaplan Feldman Holocaust Museum. This is a powerful and moving experience that offers visitors an important glimpse into one of the darkest moments in human history. The museum features permanent exhibition and artifact displays that tell the story of the Holocaust through the eyes of those who lived it.

We will return to Valley Park around 4:30 p.m. and St. Clair around 5:00 p.m.
